Fish 'n' Chip Run

Endeavour Esplanade, Scarborough
Sunday 21st January at 10.00am

As mentioned above, this is an official club run, but no meeting is held this month. It's time to dust off the old classics again and take them for a drive.

The purpose of the Fish 'n' Chip run is for club members to come together after the Christmas/New Year break and catch-up with news, gossip and friends.

To the left is a small map of where we are gathering on the day (near the toilet block). Don't worry you won't miss us, just look for the classic cars. Hope to see you there!

KIDS CHRISTMAS PARTY

Sunday 3rd December at Banksia Beach, Bribie Island

It turned out to be quite a warm day, but the breeze coming off the water was lovely. The warm weather didn't seem to affect the kids from having a great day either.

It was a great turnout with about 20 children and even more adults attending. The kids had a day full of fun games to pass the time, which included pass the parcel, pin the tail on the donkey and a treasure hunt. There were also plenty of lollies, drinks and balloons to keep them occupied too.

Before we knew it, Santa arrived in his 1934 Morris Cowley to deliver gifts to the waiting hordes. Most of the kids were so excited to receive their gift and have their photo taken with Santa but as usual, there was one or two who were not too happy about the strange man with the white beard!

Big thanks to Julie for arranging the games & prizes and thanks to Barbara & Neville (once again) for bringing the tables along for the smorgasbord lunch items. Also big thanks to all members who turned up either with or without the young ones of the family to make this a fun day for the kids once again.

MONTHLY CABOOLTURE CRUISE

The following email was received recently...

Ladies & Gentleman,

I'm happy to announce to you all that the CABOOLTURE HUMBLE PIE turnout is a "GO". Yes it's on! So here it is:

Venue: HUMBLE PIE (Just off the Bruce Hwy - Old Go Kart Track) Pumicestone Road, Caboolture

When: Once a month - no exact dates are set at this stage. More details will be provided soon.

Why: 'Cause Classic Car Cruisin' is Cool.

There is...

- | | |
|-----------------|----------------------------------|
| ▪ FUEL | ▪ NO RESIDENTS TO COMPLAIN |
| ▪ GOOD FOOD | ▪ NO BOOZE |
| ▪ HUGE CAR PARK | ▪ NO DOGS |
| ▪ GOOD LIGHTING | ▪ NO HOONING, CRUISIN' is fine ☺ |

All Hot Rods, Muscle Cars, Classic Cars, Car Clubs etc. are very welcome; however "WE" (all the people that miss the shhh-boom turnout) will take a VERY dim view should this get canned.

If you are keen on going I ask that you let us know. We also ask that you support the HUMBLE PIE by chowing down there, as THEY are supporting you.

The HUMBLE PIE will WELCOME us there ONCE a month provided we are all responsible at the venue. Spread the WORD.....

As mentioned earlier, once we have received further information on when the next event will be held and who to contact, we will inform club members who are interested in attending.

The generous old lady.

On Sunday morning the Minister decided to try a different approach to improve the church finances.

He announced that whoever placed the largest financial gift into the collection plate could choose three hymns.

After the collection was taken up, the minister happily announced the oldest member of the congregation, a sprightly 92 year old, had won the privilege. The lady was asked to come up to the altar and choose her three hymns.

The lady walked up the aisle quite happily and once at the altar she turned to the congregation and said "I'll have him, him and him".

Bloke gets a job as a chauffeur and after a few months works his way up to a senior driver's position. One day he is told to go and pick up a VIP at the airport - but it's a "bit of a hush-hush visit" so exercise discretion.

Lo and behold, there at the airport is the Pope!

His Holiness gets into the back of the Rolls, and admires the leatherwork and interior, then says to Bloke "What's this thing like to drive? I used to enjoy driving a little car when I was a priest back in Poland, but since then, I've been driven everywhere and really miss being behind the wheel."

Bloke says "no problem" and stops. The Pope jumps into front seat and the bloke gets into the back and heads off down the motorway at 100 mph!

Next thing, he is pulled over by a motorbike cop, who walks up to the car.

The Pope winds down the window and the cop walks back to his car to radio for advice.

"I have caught a VIP speeding, what do I do?" he asks the senior officer.

"What kind of VIP?"

"A VERY IMPORTANT VIP!"

"How important? A cabinet minister? A member of the Royal family? One of the Spice Girls?"

"Errrrr - I think it must be GOD!"

He's got the Pope driving him around!"

No One Is Above Suspicion
